CHURCH OF GOD TO ORGANIZE LOCAL CONGREGATION

The Church of God, America's oldest Pentecostal Church has begun services in the city of Appomattox with the expressed purpose of organizing a local congregation. The Church of God has its' General Headquarters in Cleveland, Tennessee and State Headquarters in Roanoke, Va. and congregations throughout all of America and ninety countries around the world.

The ministers and laymen of the Church of God hold fervently to the fundamental teachings of the Bible. They believe in christian disciplined living and a firm commitment to evengelism.

The new church in Appomattox is realizing phenomenal growth as the pastor, Rev. W.L. Tharrington , works untiringly in reaching the unsaved in this area with the message of Jesus Christ.

Reverend Tharrington and the people of the church extend a cordial invitation to the citizens of Appomattox to attend the temporary location of the church on Linden Street.

Gladstone Native Ends 32-Year Career

Gladstone - Oscar Leonard Brown, Jr., Director of Civilian Personnel on the U. S. Naval Air Station, Norfolk, has retired after 32 years of working for the U. S. Government.

He is the son of Mrs. O. L. (Constance E.) Brown, Gladstone and a graduate of Appomattox High School, Appomattox. He studied heat treatment of metals at the Newport News Apprentice School from 1934 to 1936. On July 10, 1939, he began working at the Air Station. Promotions for the young heat treater came very quickly. By 1946 he was a Shop Personnel Supervisor and in 1947 a Senior Shop Personnel Supervisor.

In 1951 he became a Personnel Assistant in the Industrial Relations Department at NAS. From that position he advanced to Supervisory Personnel Assistant, Supervisor Personnel Officer, Supervisory Position Classifier and in 1957 Supervisory Position Classification Specialist. In October 1960 Mr. Brown became Personnel Officer.

During his 32 years at the Air Station Mr. Brown has been the recipient of many awards. He has received a Beneficial Suggestion Award and numerous attendance and length of service awards. In 1963 he was nominated for and received the Navy Superior Civilian Service Award -- the first Station employee to earn this honorary award.

In 1965 he was presented the Hubert L. Johnson Memorial Award by the Hampton Roads Federal Personnel Council in recognition of his significant contributions toward improving federal personnel management.

As Director of Civilian Personnel he was also nominated for the National Civil Service League Twelfth Annual Career Service Award and he has received numerous letters of commendation throughout his career.

SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST

Rufus B. McDannel, Pastor
Sabbath School Lesson No. 12 for Sept. 18,1971
Subject:The Men of Missions
Key Text: Jesus answered, "as thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I sent them into the world." John 17:18

The only instance in which John uses the Greek word for "apostle" ("one sent," messenger') is in John 13:16 where it is translated, "he that is sent" and where it refers to the Twelve and indirectly to any of Christ's messengers. In John 17:18, the Greek translated "sent" is the verb form of the same word. It might be translated, 'Even so have I apostled them into the world", which would preserve the flavor of the original.

As we reflect in our day on the gospel commission, we should do so with two profound convictions clearly in mind – that we are members of God's remnant church, and that God has commissioned us to proclaim His last saving message to the world. For nearly half a century the Protestant world has been "rethinking foreign missions. Such phrases as "missions in crisis," "Missions in a time of testing", "refining missions" have appeared again and again. It is a simple fact that the churches have been losing their vision of missions. What about your church and mine?

Lesson Outline--I.The church as a Temple, Eph. 2:19-22. 2. Christ's zeal for His Temple. John 2:17. 3. Early Church Son Loses Its Vision. Rom. 1:14. 4. Dawn of Protestant Missions. Rev. 12:16. 5. Adventist Mission Impulse. Rev. 14:6-10. 6. One Church in all the World. Eph. 4:4-6.

Think on these things: 1. The church is the household of God. 1 Tim. 3:15. 2. Prophets and apostles laid the foundation. 3. Christ is the chief cornerstone that "holds together the various parts of the spiritual house, giving shape and unity to it." –S.D.A. Bible commentary Eph. 2:20. At the age of twelve Jesus accompanied His parents to the Passover Feast, at which time we have His first recorded words "Wist ye not that I must be about my Father's business? Luke 2:49. "As His mission opened to Jesus in the temple, He shrank from contact with the multitude. He wished to return from Jerusalem in quietness, with those who knew the secret of His life . . . As Joseph and Mary should return from Jerusalem alone, Jesus knew He hoped to direct their minds to the prophecies of the suffering Saviour." –The Desire of Ages, p. 82.

Jesus came to save a lost world. But was the work of salvation completed when He ended His mission on earth? (Read John 17:4,18, also read Matt. 28:18-20 and Acts 1:6-8). The quick answer is asked. When did the early Church lose its first love, its incentive, its vision? (Read Rev. 2:4, also Rev. 14:6-10 "For the Adventist mission impulse, "Not until the early 70's, however, did the leaders in the Advent movement begin to comprehend that theirs was a mission to the whole world. This gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come; was regarded simply as a prominent sign of the last day; Later Adventists saw it was their duty to warn the whole world.
